

Good Readers Make Connections

Making connections helps you better understand what you are reading. You gain greater meaning from the text when we try to connect to it.

How can I connect?

Text to Self

Connect something from the text to you and your life.

Text to Text

Connect something from the text to something else you have read.

Text to World

Connect something from the text to events in the world.

When you share your connection, you need to tell two things.
1) the part from the book 2) what the connection is
